BEP ANNOUNCES FY '87 EXHIBIT SCHEDULE;
SPIDER PRESS TO BE FEATURED AT TWO EXHIBITIONS

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing today announced its 1987 numismatic and philatelic exhibit schedule. In addition to sending technical representatives to each show, the Bureau will issue a special souvenir card commemorating seven of these shows.

"We carefully reviewed each of the numerous invitations received by the Bureau," said Director Robert J. Leuver. "As always, we were honored with so many invitations from such high caliber events that it was extremely difficult to make a selection of only nine." These were selected on the basis of geographic location and expected attendance in order to provide maximum opportunity for the public to view samples of security documents produced by the Bureau.

In honor of its 125th anniversary, the BEP souvenir cards have been redesigned to include a new anniversary logo. This new logo will appear prominently on each card.

The schedule of shows and the special souvenir card for each follows:

- Long Beach Philatelic Exhibition (LOBEX), Long Beach, Calif., October 2-5, 1986; souvenir card features the face of the $10 Gold Certificate, Series 1907, complemented by a block of four 50¢ Western Mining Prospector stamps.
- National World and Paper Money Convention (NWPMC), St. Louis, Mo., November 13-16, 1986; souvenir card features sections of U.S. fractional currency.
- Dallas Coin and Stamp Exposition, Dallas, Texas, December 11-14, 1986; souvenir card features the back of a $10,000 Federal Reserve Note complemented by a block of four stamps commemorating the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims.
- Florida United Numismatists (FUN), Orlando, Florida, January 7-10, 1987; souvenir card features a series 1874, U.S. Note with a center portrait of George Washington and a vignette of Christopher Columbus.

- American Numismatic Association Mid-winter Convention, Charlotte, North Carolina, February 27-March 1, 1987; souvenir card features $500,000,000 Treasury Note.
- Washington, Montgomery, Prince Georges Tri-club Association (WMPG), New Carrollton, Maryland, April 9-12, 1987; no souvenir card.
- International paper Money Show (IPMS), Memphis, Tennessee, June 19-21, 1987; souvenir card to feature the back of a $20 Gold Certificate, Series 1922.
- American Numismatic Association (ANA) 96th Convention, Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-6, 1987; souvenir card features the back of a Series 1886, $2 Silver Certificate.
- Great Eastern Numismatic Association, Cherry Hill, New Jersey, September 17-20, 1987; no souvenir card.

Mr. Leuver also announced that the Spider Press, a 19th century hand press, will be demonstrated at two of the shows. These include the FUN Show in Orlando, Florida and the ANA 96th National Convention in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Bureau's exhibits traditionally include historic stamps and currency that are rarely seen by the public. A popular feature at numismatic shows is the "BILLION DOLLAR EXHIBIT," featuring historic gold and silver certificates, fractional currency, United States Notes, and other rarities seldom seen by the public.
